Priority areas: To see “more kids, more opportunities, better skills” being delivered in our communities most effectively, applications that have a focus on the following will be prioritised:

- Programmes / approaches that engage and support young people in low-participating communities to ensure they receive appropriate physical activity or sporting opportunities. In particular, projects that support participants from low decile communities; girls aged between 10-18 years, Māori, Pacific and Indian communities, will be prioritised.
- KiwiSport funding is transitioning away from funding in-curriculum initiatives. The School Sport Futures project (Sport NZ, 2015) identified concerns with some sport-based programmes replacing quality physical education, particularly in primary schools, and therefore Sport NZ has recommended this reduction. Out-of-curriculum time includes lunch times, after-/before-school, weekends, and holidays.
